Christian Wolff, PGA Associate, is a teaching professional at Heron Lakes Golf Club with a passion for helping players build more repeatable swings, lower scores, and more confidence on the course. With a background in psychology and competitive golf, Christian brings a unique understanding of both the physical and mental sides of the game.

Christian’s coaching style focuses on keeping the game simple and helping each player better understand their own swing. He believes improvement starts with strong fundamentals, clear communication, better awareness, and a practice plan that fits each player’s goals. Whether working with beginners, juniors, or experienced players, his goal is to make each lesson easy to understand and immediately useful.

Christian’s mission is to help every student enjoy the process of getting better, play with more confidence, and develop a lifelong love for golf.
